- For PGP (BM)
There are 2 stages that a candidate goes through before getting selected for IIM Sirmaur PGP(BM) Programme.
 - The first stage is appearing for the CAT 2020 Examination
 - On clearing the required cutoffs, a candidate is called for the Personal Presence Process (PPP) which includes Written Ability Test (WAT) and Personal Interview (PI).
 - The applicants shortlisted shall be invited for personal interview via email. The final shortlisting is done based on the composite score of CAT, WAT and PI

- For MBA (T& HM)
 - The candidates will be shortlisted based on CAT or GMAT score.
 - The applicants shortlisted shall be invited for personal interview via email. Interview can also be held through video conferencing.

IIM Sirmaur Eligibility and Selection Criteria

IIM Sirmaur calls candidates for WAT-PI based on their CAT percentiles. The minimum CAT percentiles required in order to be considered for an IIM Sirmaur call in the year 2020 have been tabulated below:

Category	BM	T &HM
Overall	≥ 94	≥ 94
VARC	≥ 80	≥ 90
DILR	≥ 80	≥ 80
QA	≥ 80	≥ 80

- Valid GMAT/GRE Score (Taken within last 5 years)

However, the actual cutoffs for calls for the GDPI process can be much higher than these mentioned above.

Final Selection Process:

The overall composite score for admission is calculated based on the following parameters:

Sr. no	Component	Weightage of Component (PGP)
